HEAVY BUYING OF COALERS.

VANCE - DECLINE IN SUGAR -ANOTHER DROP IN SILVER.

The chief feature of the stock market yesterday was the course of the stocks of the anthracite coal-carrying railroads. They advanced materially, nearly all other prominent stocks declined. Heavy buying of the leading "coalers" was due to the concentration of the control of the coal trade by J. Pierpont Morgan, so that now production and prices may be regulated without difficulty. The most recent step in this direction was the assumption of authority in the affairs of the Lehigh Val-ley Railroad by Mr. Morgan. This road handles largely the coal output of the independent miners. It is reported that Mr. Morgan is to secure possession of the New-York, Susquehanna and Western Railroad and turn it over to the Eric Railroad. Net gains in value recorded for the coal road stocks, comparing the closing prices with those o onday, were: Delaware and Hudson, 2%; New-Jersey Central, 2: Susquehanna and Western pre-ferred, 1; Reading first preferred, %; Reading common, 1/4. There was a loss of 1/4 in Lackawanna and % in Reading second preferred. Ontario and Western and Susquehanna and Western common closed unchanged.

There was great activity with a heavy decline yesterday in the common stock of the American Sugar Refining Company (Sugar Trust). The stock, which closed on Monday at 139%, opened at 140%. which closed on Monday at 133%, opened at 143%, and then broke under pressure of seiling orders to 135½. It recovered at the close to 137, so that the loss in price for the day was 2%. The sales were 65,000 shares. There was a fall of 2½ per cent in the preferred stock through sympathy. Only 1,200 shares of the preferred were dealt in. The movement in Sugar was purely speculative.

The sugar-resining interests obtained practically what they wanted in the new taria. It was thought necessary that German beet sugars, which were becoming dangerous, should be shut out from were becoming dangerous, should be shut out from this country, and the new bill absolutely shuts them out. Furthermore, beet sugar cannot be sent from Germany to Holland, Belgium or England to be refined and exported to the United States without paying the countervailing bounty duty. The agents abroad of the United States Treasury will keep close track of raw sugar, and any exports of refined to the United States such as those described will be held up at the custom houses here and made to pay full duty exactly as sugars direct from German ports. The next important point was a duty on low-grade sugars, and this was secured. The amount of the differential duty was of least consequence, and a very large one was not deconsequence, and a very large one was not desirable, as it would stimulate the erection of rival informed sugar Refining Company (Sugar Trust) funformed sugar brokers that it would give them until Saturday moon to fill whatever orders them until Saturday moon to fill whatever orders them the advance of one-eighth cent a pound. The stock of raw sugars were sold on Monday at the advance of one-eighth cent a pound. The stock of raw sugars here is said to amount to stock of raw sugars. With a good average contons are beet sugars. With a good average contons are beet sugars, with a good average contons are been sucked to the country to take in good supplies.

There was another drop in silver yesterday. Comthis country, and the new bill absolutely shuts

There was another drop in silver yesterday. Commercial bars sold at 58% cents an ounce, against 58% on Monday. The price of Government assay bars was 55% cents an ounce, which made the value of the silver in a silver dollar 45.14 cents.

U. S. 4 PER CENT BONDS AT 126%.

The Government new 4 per cent bonds are up to 1264, the highest price ever recorded for these The advance has caused a great deal of bonds. The advance has caused a great deal of interest among dealers in bonds, and they do not find it easy to explain the rise, more especially as there has been no activity in them of late. Strength marks the whole bond list, and this is particularly true of Government. State and municipal issues. The city of New-York will this week offer $10.000,000 of bonds, and it is expected that the subscriptions for them will be heavy and the premium high.

otion was made before Surrogate Arnold yesterday in behalf of Mrs. Harriet N. Trask for an allowance of $10,000 from the estate of her husband, Benjamin I. H. Trask. The latter died in January last, leaving a large estate, in which the widow was well provided for, but Mrs. Trask alleges that the executors under the will have refused to grant

The action of the executors, she declares, is due to the fact that they allege she is mentally in-competent to manage her affairs, and that it would not be safe to intrust any money to her care. This says she is not insane or mentally incapable of looking after herself or her affairs, and in support of this she says she has the affidavits of her two granddaughters. Sadie Trask Sturgis and Adel Sturgis; her daughter, Sarah S. Sturgis, and three or four physicians.

The executors of the estate are Gustavus D. S. Trask, Maurice S. Ducker and Sadie Trask Sturgis, the latter her granddaughter, who, the petitioner says, is willing to consent to her grandmother receiving what is due her.

Mrs. Trask says she has borrowed from friends 5,000 since the death of her husband. Decision was received.

POSITION OF COMMISSIONER STILES.

A Tribune reporter asked Park Commissioner Stiles yesterday if he voted for the resolution said to have been passed in executive session by the Park Board at its meeting on Monday in reference to the protest of the Fine Arts Federation against the adoption of the Botanical Garden plans. Mr. Stiles replied that he was unable to pians. Mr. Silles replied that he was unable to agree with his colleagues. In his opinion, the resolution contains statements which are erroneous and quite misleading. Besides this, he does not indorse the accusation that the Fine Arts Federation acted recklessly and without a careful examination of the questions involved, and he believes that the protest was based on adequate knowledge of the essential facts in the case.

EMPLOYED HIS CHILDREN AS SERVANTS. The will of Albert Schmall was filed for probate yesterday in the Surrogate's office. The testator died on July 14 last at his home, No. 453 West

He directs his executors to pay to his daughter Amalie, who had been employed by him as a servant, $14 a month from January 1, 1887, up to such time as he shall dispense with her services. To his son Otto is left $896 for services he ren-dered at home in his father's old age. The residue of the estate is divided among the four children of the testator.

TO HURRY WOMEN PRISONERS' TRIALS. As a result of a crusade instituted by Recorder

Goff some months ago, District-Attorney Olcott yesterday afternoon issued an order to Assistant District-Attorney Unger, who has charge of the court calendars, instructing him to put all female prisoners on the calendar for trial at once.

Of late there have been many complaints that certain lawyers have kept prisoners in the Tombs for the purpose of having them get legal business for these lawyers. No names could be obtained yesterday, but it was learned that the practice had become noticeable to officials of the prison.

CHILDREN'S AID BOYS GO WEST.

Nine boys, sent out by the Children's Aid Society, started yesterday afternoon over the Eric Railroad for Kansas. The party was under the charge of R. M. Brace, the agent of the society at the Farm School at Kensico. The present party is bound for Eldorado, in the southern part of Kansas. It has not been absolutely settled just where each boy shall go, but there are more than enough applications for all, and Mr. Erace will consult with applications for all, and all. Frace win consist winthose who want them before their disposition is finally decided. The boys range from nine to fifteen years. They are mostly orphans. They have all been at the Kensleo farm about two months, and Mr. Brace says they will make good citizens. All of them were born in this country. Most of them will be placed with farmers, and agents of the society will visit them from time to time.

Adolph Bodesch, who calls himself a mining stock broker, and his agent, Alexander Rees, both of Chicago, who were held for examination on Sat-Magistrate Hedges, in the Yorkville Court, on charges of defrauding a number of servant girls, were rearraigned in court yesterday. Rees was held in $1,000 bail until the 29th and Bodesch was discharged. Magistrate Hedges said that he had no jurisdiction in this complaint. He said that it was a civil action.

The dissolution on Monday of the stock-brokers' firm of Benedict Bros., No. 48 Exchange Place, was followed yesterday by the announcement of the formation of another firm, under the name of L. L. Benedict & Co., with L. L. Benedict and F. G. Meacham as partners.

SETTLING "CAPTAIN COOK" CLAIMS.

MR. NOBLETT ADVANCES $3,000 FOR THE PAY-MENT OF SALARIES.

E. Arden Noblett, the backer of the "Captain Cook" opera, was seen at his office, No. 20 Wall-st., yesterday afternoon, and said that he had given to the business manager and his attorney $3,000 to go toward the settlement of the salaries of the chorus girls, coryphees and ballet dancers. This would settle all claims in full, he said, up to last Saturday night, and perhaps for part of this week, though he was not sure what notice had been given or arrangements were made on the termination of the performances last Saturday night.

COMPLAINTS OF DISSATISFIED PERSONS.

CONTRACT SIGNED BY THOSE RECEIVING IN-STRUCTION AND EMPLOYMENT FROM THE ARISTO NOVELTY COMPANY.

A complaint that the advertisement of the Aristo Novelty Company, at No. 13 West Forty-second-st., offering employment to men and women, was misleading, because it was said it led persons to seek employment which was not profitable for them. aused a Tribune reporter to make inquiries. The office is on an upper floor, and is decorated with a variety of colored photographs of different sizes. The manager said the employment offered was the coloring and mounting of photographs. Pay at the rate of 60 cents a dozen was given to some of the workers, he asserted, but persons who were learning the art received only nominal pay for took to learn the art sometimes complained that they did not find the employment profitable, and he spoke of one woman who made such a scene in the office that she was threatened with arrest.

The manager exhibited a printed contract, which he said all persons were required to sign before receiving instruction and employment. A part of

"I understand that I cannot make a living by this work. I agree to furnish my own working materials, and to leave a cash deposit on all photos and crystals taken out, with the understanding that out of said deposit shall be deducted the cost of all such goods spoiled by me, and that said deposit is to be refunded with payment for work only on the return of correctly finished work, and only on the days fixed by said company for receiving work. I understand that the company will reject and refuse to pay for all imperfect work, and that such work is my loss, and that work is undertaken by me solely at my own risk, and and that such work is my loss, and all without any representations or guarantees whatsoever on the part of said company, except that they agree to purchase my correctly finished work.

I agree not to manufacture the pictures for saie elsewhere, or to teach the art to others."
The warning in red ink, "Read carefully before signing." is printed over the contract, which, in addition to yielding almost every conceivable right of a worker to receive fair treatment, provides for the payment of a sum, not stated in print, for a lesson. The word "over" in brackets also appears in red ink at the lower left band corner of the contract, and on the back of the paper are printed certain rules and regulations. One is to the effect that work retained longer than sixty days will be regarded as soid, and treated as such, and another says: "We do not refund money on purchases."
Workers in the employ of the company, the manager said, were chiefly women who did not wish to be known as workers for the company. Some who were dissatisfied had shown their feeling by making anonymous complaints, he said, but none of them had made complaints which would stand in a police court.

ALLEGED ATTEMPTED BLACKMAIL.

George J. According to Bascom, the prisoner called on him at the Glisey House on Monday and demanded $50, saying he knew some of his family secrets and would keep them quiet for that amount. Bascom put the young man off at the time, but said he might call next day. In the mean time Bascom requested a friend of his to be on hand yesterday as a witand was at the Glisey House, standing near Bascom when Reardon appeared. Bascom says that Reardon talked in a confidential way, and instead of £9 demanded £2,600 this time.
"I'll have you arrested," said Bascom, "You're a blackmailer."

"I'll have you arrested," said Bascom, "You're a blackmaiter."

The young man flushed, numbled something and hurriedly left the place. Bascom and Loader followed. Reardon started along Broadway and up Twenty-ninth-st. At that point was Policeman John J. Daily, of the Tenderloin Precinct, who is detailed to duty at the crossing. The cries of "Stop him! Stop him!" attracted Daily's attention. Reardon was going up Twenty-ninth-st., but the policeman soon overtook and arrested him. He was taken to the West Thirtieth-st. station and then to Jefferson Market Court. There he had little to say, except to deny the charge. Magistrate Fool held him in $500 hends for examination this morning, and the young man was led to a cell in Jefferson Market Prison.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

The contest for the place of captain of police to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Captain John Mangin, which has been full of surprises, took on a new aspect yesterday. It was generally be lleved that things would be brought to a head or Friday of this week and an appointment made. Three doctors were to examine the eligible men yesterday afternoon, but a new turn in affairs came in the shape of a letter to the Board of Police from Robert Neville, secretary of the local Civil Service Commission, in which he says that another exami-nation must be had of candidates. This is his com-munication: "We have been informed by the secre-tary of the State Board of Civil Service Commissioners that this Board has no authority to present any names to any appointing board or officer un...! new rules to conform to the amended law have been adopted by us and confirmed by the State Board. We have, therefore, erred in presenting to you the names of candidates for the places of captain and sergeant and would hereby withdraw the same and request that you return said lists to us. We are sorry further to delay you in this matter, but must be sure we are right, and will use all expedition possible to place the lists in your hands after all the formalities are compiled with." The examination of applicants for captain and sergeant by the local Civil Service Board was made soon after the new law went into effect. The Commissioners, not having a certified copy of the new law, held the examinations under the old law.

Several days ago five linemen were arrested on complaint of William F. Nisbet, president of the Board of Education, on a charge of mutilating shade trees in front of his home in South Broadway. Joseph F. Daly, counsel for the men, demanded a separate fury trial in each case, which meant the summonling of eighty-four jurors. Yesterday the first case was called, but not enough jurors could be found, as many Yonkers people are out of town. As this might occur in the other four cases, a compromise was effected and the cases settled by Mr. Nisbet. This city has been dull socially in the last two weeks. The steam road-roller, whose purchase by the village authorities met considerable opposition on the part of the taxbayers, has proved itself useful in more than one line of work. A heavy stone truck became stailed going up the Secor Road on Monday, when loaded with a grantite slab weighing more than twelve tons, intended for a tomb that is in course of creetion in Dule Cemetery. The entire weight of slab and truck was not far from fourteen tons, and twenty horses were unable to budge it an inch after the wheels had once settled down into the soft readled. Some one suggested hitching the road-toller to the truck and trying what it could do, and the idea was at once followed, with the result that the truck and its lurden were hauled up the hill, apparently with the greatest ease, the roller lumbering along at its usual speed as though it had no weight beyond its own elephantine proportions to take care of. The road-roller has many more friends now than before.

A STATION AGENT HELD UP.

James Anderson, a ticket agent on the Ninthave, elevated road at Thirtieth-st., was held up and robbed at Ninth-ave, and Fourteenth-st, at $:30 'clock Monday night. He is seventy years old. Just as he reached the foot of the station stairs on his way home to No. 699 Hudson-st. he was set upon by three men, unmercifully beaten and robbed of his watch and chain. Bent and feeble, he was unable to protect himself against the sudden attack by the three men. Mr. Anderson fell semi-conscious to the sidewalk, and there passers-by found him and assisted him home. In the mean time Policeman Barnes, of the Charles-st. station, attracted by the four men struggling, had taken in the situation and started in pursuit of the highwaymen, who fied west. Then they scattered. At Fifteenth-st and Tenth-ave, Barnes arrested one of the men. The others made their escape. The prisoner described himself as Charles Jordan, twenty-seven years old, of No. 29 Gansevoort-st. The officer says that Jordan's picture is in the Rogue's Gallery as a highwayman. In Jefferson Market Court yesterday morning Magistrate Poole held Jordan for examination this morning. Just as he reached the foot of the station stairs on

A SERVANT'S SUICIDE.

Barbara Roos, forty years old, a servant in the employ of Adolph S. Ellison, of No. 1,893 Madisonave., committed suicide yesterday morning with illuminating gas. She had been a trusted servant for five years. Mr. Ellison and his family have been away for some months in the country. Mr. Ellison was all right. The Roos woman had been left in night, and that he would take breakfast there in the morning. Mr. Ellison waited until 8 o'clock for his breakfast, and then went upstairs to see what the matter was with the woman. He smelled es-

SPEED OF SURFACE CARS AT CURVES.

THE HEALTH BOARD'S AMENDMENT TO THE SANITARY CODE.

The Board of Health at its meeting yesterday adopted the proposed amendment to the Sanitary Code which states that all surface cars must be supplied with some appliance which will enable the gripmen and drivers to control the speed of cars on curves, as well as at other points of the road. The amendment will go into effect two weeks from yesterday.

the Board took up the subject of the overcrowd-ing of streetcars. Nothing definite was done, but it will be taken up at the next meeting of the Board, when something of a final nature may be effected.

A BROKER ARRESTED.

CHARGES GROWING OUT OF A GRANT PARADE VENTURE.

B. Franklin Cross, an insurance broker of No. 7 Pine-st., and living at West New-Brighton, Staten Island, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Maloney, of the Jefferson Market Court squad, on a warrant issued by Magistrate Pool, on a charge of conversion. The complainant was Hattie A. T. Collins, of No. 51 West Twentieth-st. She had a small fortune left her by her husband, mostly in bonds. Cross was her broker. It is said that about the time the Grant memorial parade was talked of Cross induced her to invest some money in building stands along Riverside Drive, saying in building stands along Riverside Drive, saying there ought to be plenty of money in such a venture. Owing to the stormy weather prevailing at the time the venture turned out disastrously. Mrs. Collins had given Cross bonds to the value of $2,000, on which to negotiate a loan for that purpose. Since then, she alleges, she has had no accounting. Mr. Cross contended that he could not be held responsible for the loss, which was due to the elements, and holds that his arrest on such a charge is unjust. Magistrate Pool in Jefferson Market Court held him for examination this morning.

CHARGES NOT YET TAKEN UP.

The charges of fraud preferred several months ago by Francis J. Kennett against George B. Hopkins have not yet been taken up by the Governing Committee of the New-York Stock Exchange. When the firm of Kennett, Hopkins & Co. was dissolved more than a year ago a dispute arose between Messrs. Kennett and Hopkins over the division of the assets. Mr. Kennett brought suit against Mr. Hopkins to recover a large amount that he asserted was due to him, but was retained by Mr. Hopkins. Following this suit Mr. Kennett laid charges of fraud against Mr. Hopkins before the Stock Ex-change authorities, as was printed at the time. The Complaint Committee, to which the charges were eferred, investigated them, but the Governing Comnittee decided not to consider its report until the litigation between Mr. Kennett and Mr. Hopkins was ended. The matter will hardly be disposed of before September. Mr. Hopkins, who is now the head of the firm of George B. Hopkins & Co., No. head of the firm of george B. Hopkins & Co., No. 120 Broadway, has been a member of the Stock Ex-change since February II, 1885. Were the charges of fraud to be sustained, it would mean expulsion. The Committee of Arrangements of the Stock Ex-change is continuing its investigation of alleged relations between members of the Exchange and proprietors of bucket-shops and discretionary-order concerns.

TWO-DOLLAR CERTIFICATES RAISED.

Several of the new two-dollar silver certificates raised so as to make them appear to be five-dollar certificates have been received at the New-York Sub-Treasury recently. Two were received yesterday in the regular course of business. They were turned in by banks which had not detected them. Only $2 each, of course, was allowed for them. The change in the bill is very cleverly done with pen and ink. The group of female figures on the front of the five-dollar bill is somewhat similar to that on the front of the two-dollar bill. The two-dollar bill has on its back vignettes of Morse and Fulton, while the five-dollar bill has on its back vignettes of Grant and Sheridan. The only change made in the bills was to alter the figures on them from 2 to 5.

A TAMMANY CAPTAIN ON TRIAL.

The trial of Charles Kraemer for violation of the election law at the last general election was reumed yesterday morning before Recorder Goff, in Part II of General Sessions, Kraemer was a Tam many captain of the Eighteenth Election District of the VIIIth Assembly District, and is accused of of the VIIIth Assembly District, and is accused of having got Daniel F. Ryan, of Philadelphia, to register falsely. He pleaded guilty, and appeared as a witness against Kraemer.

A quantity of testimony for the prosecution was taken, and the case went over until to-day. Recorder Goff denied a motion for the quashing of the indictment because it was faulty, in that it read "David F. Ryan," while the name on the registry rolls was Daniel F. Ryan.

GOLD EXPORTS POSSIBLE.

Foreign houses say that, while it does not appear that there are any definite orders for gold for Ger-man account in the market at the momeat, it is possible that there may be further exports this week. The exchange market continues firm around the rates at which gold went out yesterday and on the rates at which gold went our years and the samulation of this fact. The demand for exchange for the time being is fair, while the supply is about normal. It is probable that exchange will hang around the present point for a short time at least.
